Dear Esteemed Faculty:

Thank you again for presenting at PLI's Environmental Regulation in Practice 2022: New Challenges and Priorities with Phil Karmel and Duke McCall on Friday, September 16.

A copy of the schedule is attached for your convenience; and below are a few helpful guidelines for the day.

** We have everyone scheduled to present in person; please let me know if you need to present remotely.****

- We look forward to welcoming you at 1177 Avenue of the Americas (45th Street Entrance), New York, New York- Please use the dedicated PLI entrance on 45th Street.
- Try to arrive at least 30 minutes before your panel begins.
- To keep the program moving, we have to ask that you please leave the dais promptly after your segment ends, but feel free to catch up with other speakers and acquaintances outside of the room.
- COVID Protocols
  - Proof of Vaccination against COVID-19 required to be shown at the door.
  - Masks are no longer required, but you are welcome to continue using a mask at your convenience.
- Please be sure to speak for the entire time you are scheduled. If your segment starts late or ends early, that might cost attendees CLE credit.
- Please repeat audience members' questions for the benefit of everyone in the room and on the webcast.
- Silence cell phone (including buzzing) while presenting
- Make sure to cover all the bullet points advertised for your segment.

- You are welcome to attend the full program-before and after your segment either in person or via the Webcast. You will earn CLE credit for every hour of attendance in addition to your faculty credit.

Please contact me any time, we look forward to seeing you Friday!

Victoria Kennedy, Esq.
